

RCRC Carpool Release

Assumption of Risk, Waiver of Claims and Indemnity Agreement

RCRC's provides a method whereby individuals interested in carpooling may voluntarily do so. Parents are welcome to travel with the team. Parents who agree to chaperone must adhere to the team method of travel and the team schedule. Users of the carpool are advised that its use is voluntary and entirely at their and their parent's/guardian's discretion. If parents/guardians do not wish to utilize the carpool it is their responsibility to get themselves and their rower to and from regattas. Rowers are not permitted to transport themselves or other rowers to regattas. No background checks of drivers or participants, driver record checks or insurance checks are undertaken by RCRC. RCRC does not make any assurances or certifications regarding the condition, suitability or safety of the vehicles being used by participants, the reliability or driving ability of participants or drivers, or whether those participants and drivers are insured.

Responsibility for Insurance

It is the responsibility of individuals participating in a carpool to notify their insurance provider of their intent to carry non-family passengers and to ensure that they have adequate coverage to protect both themselves and their passengers. It is the responsibility of the driver of the vehicle to ensure they have an acceptable driving record, are licensed accordingly and have adequate insurance to protect both themselves and passengers. RCRC is in no way responsible for verifying or certifying the reliability, driving ability or insurance status of drivers and participants.

Waiver of Claims & Indemnification

RCRC takes no responsibility for any personal injuries, deaths, property damages, financial losses or other damages or losses that may result from the use of carpooling. By participating in the RCRC's carpool program, you hereby agree to waive any and all claims that you have or may have in the future against RCRC and to release them from any and all liability for loss, damage, expense or injury including death that you, your next of kin or a third party may suffer as a result of your participation in or involvement in the RCRC program.
